JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

SOW WHEAT.

The Chronicle and Sentinel sounds a timely note of exhortation to our planters to sow wheat, and says:

Wheat does as well sown late as the middle of November, provided the land is well prepared and properly fertilized. The very best fertilizer for wheat is cotton seed. Although the cotton crop is in some sections very short, an ample supply of cotton seed can be had on every plantation, by the middle of November, to apply a liberal dose to all the land sown in wheat. But the great secret in wheat growing is the thorough and perfect preparation of the soil before seeding. The reason why the wheat crop has once so uncertain in this section of Georgia is because there has been heretofore hardly an attempt at preparation before sowing. An old piece of poor, stubble, full of weeds, bushes and briars, or a recently planted corn-field covered with grass and corn stalks has been selected for the wheat crop. Upon these lands, without any preparation whatever, the grain is sown and ploughed under with a common turn-plow, and that is all that is done. With this sort of treatment the wheat crop will prove a failure four out of five years. It is worse than useless to plant in this way. Better keep the seed for grinding and let the land lie idle.

But if these lands are thoroughly and deeply turned over with a good, two-horse plow, where they are heavy, and with a large, one-horse plow where they are light, all the bushes and briars having been previously cut down and the land cleared of limbs and trash, in the month of October, or even early in November, and then thoroughly cross ploughed or harrowed, a good crop may be considered quite certain. After the land is thus thoroughly prepared, sow, broadcast, thirty to fifty bushels of cotton seed to the acre—it would be, perhaps, better to apply the cotton seed before the first harrowing—then sow good wheat at the rate of three to five pecks to the acre, according to the quality of the land, and harrow it well in the ground. After harrowing in the seed, run a roller over the field to press the earth around the wheat and leave the surface smooth and clear.

If these directions are followed a good crop may be expected. But, as we stated before, better not sow at all than to sow after the old plan. The wheat sown according to these instructions will be ready for the scythe by the 15th or the 20th of June. It will come in at the very pinch of the work for another crop, and when bought corn has caused you to have poor, weak and broken down stock. The new wheat will revive your stock and enable you to save your crop from next year's grass.

The planters of Middle Georgia must make up their minds to adopt one of two alternatives. They must either determine to make their own provision crops, or they must sell out their lands to some one that will. The planting of cotton at 12½ to 13 cents a pound will break nine-tenths of the planters of this section—those who plant cotton alone and rely upon the sale of cotton to purchase corn, hay, bacon, flour and all the necessaries of life which can and ought to be raised on the plantation. We know that planters say they "can't raise hogs now—the negroes steal 'em too much." The truth is, doubtless, that the negroes are troublesome in this respect, but from what we learn from planters generally with whom we have spoken on this subject, they do not steal more than before the war, if so much. The great trouble about raising hogs is that planters have nothing to raise them upon. They hardly buy corn enough to keep their mules from starving, and as for hogs they don't pretend to feed them. In this latter particular they are right. They cannot afford to pay $2 per bushel for corn to raise hogs on. But let them raise their own corn in abundance—let them sow large wheat and oat crops, and then they can raise bacon—raise enough despite the fact that the negroes may take some.

AN INFERNAL MISTAKE.

"Many a shaft at random sent "hits something or other which the archer little meant to touch. We have heard an anecdote illustrative of this truth, which has probably not appeared in print before, and which has been told as a genuine history. It happened in a large city—never mind what city.

There were two pretty sisters who had married, one an eminent lawyer, the other a distinguished literary man. Literary men do, and leaves young sister a widow.

Some years rolled away, and the widow lays aside her weeds. Now, then, it happens that a certain author and critic has occasion, on a broiling day in summer, to call on the eminent lawyer-husband of the elder sister. He finds the lawyer presiding and sweltering in a crowded court, sees that the lawyer is suffering dreadfully from the heat, pities him rejoices that he himself is not a lawyer, and goes for a cool saunter under the sheltering trees of a fashionable park and garden.

Among the ice-eating, fanning crowd there, he meets the younger of the two sisters, and for a moment thinks he is talking to the elder.

"Oh, Mr.———," said the lady, "how dreadfully hot it is here!"

"Yes, madame," replied our luckless critic, "it is hot here; but I can assure you the heat of this place isn't a circumstance when compared with the heat of the place where your poor dear husband is suffering to-day."

A horror-stricken expression comes over the face of the lady; she rises from her chair and flounces indignantly away.

"Ah, me miserable," soliloquizes our wretched critic, "I've been mistaking the one sister for the other, and she thinks I meant to say that her husband is—not in heaven.

THE CENSUS VS THE VOTE.—It has been charged that Capt. Swift Galloway, the Conservative candidate in the Senatorial District composed of the counties of Wayne and Greene, was defeated by stuffing the ballot-boxes with illegal votes. The census returns for Greene county show that there, at least, the allegation is not groundless. Several hundred more votes were cast than there are male citizens above the age of twenty one.

We hope Capt. Galloway will contest the election of Brogden before the Senate. There is no doubt that he is justly entitled to the seat.—Journal Commerce.

AN ASTOR HOUSE JOKE.—A short time ago Mr. A. M. Powell, of New York city, wrote to C. A. Stetson's Sons, proprietors of the Astor House in that city, asking if accommodations could be found in that well-known hotel for Hon. G. T. Ruby (colored), State Senator from Galveston, Texas, and wife. The Stetson's Sons reply that at this season of the year their house is filled with permanent boarders, but they express a willingness to aid the new element of our political machinery in receiving the necessary polish to secure it at least a social equality with the struggling Caucasian, and therefore suggest the entertainment of the honorable Senator at Mr. Powell's private residence, pledging the payment of the cost thereof when the charges are properly made out and audited by a committee.

TAXES AND SHERIFFS.

Never since we have known anything about the matter, have so few Sheriffs settled up with the Public Treasurer at the time prescribed by law as in this instance. Up to the night of the 30th September, only about twenty-two Sheriffs or tax collectors had been able to settle. Quite a number have come in since, but from all quarters there comes up an unusual complaint of the extreme difficulty of collecting the taxes—The taxes assessed for State purposes are considerably lower than last year, and yet the excessive scarcity of money, renders it more difficult than ever heretofore.

The Sheriffs inform us that many instances when compelled to sell property for taxes, there are no bidders—none had money to buy. Under such circumstances, the General Assembly will find it necessary to change the plan of collecting taxes. We have thought for some time, in view of the increase of taxes and the scarcity of money, that the public taxes both for county and State purposes, should be collected quarterly, making one-fourth due at the Public Treasurer on the first day of September, one-fourth on the first day of December, one-fourth on the first day of March, and the residue, one fourth, due on the first day of June in each year. The labor to the officers might be greater, but the relief to the people would be immense.

COLORED PEOPLE OF EDGECOMBE.

We talked with several of the colored people of Edgecombe, while in that county last week. We met some colored men there from Orange; they said the difficulty with the Orange farmers was, they did not work enough, nor make enough compost.

Harry Dancy was one of the marshals of the grand procession at Rocky Mount. He is industrious and is making money. Noah Mooney, another colored man, will make this year three hundred barrels of corn and fifty bales of cotton. James Bell, the flag bearer at the great Conservative meeting at Tucker Hall, in 1868, is prospering well. Wright Jenkins, colored, is called "the bank," because he has money to lend.

All these colored men are prospering because they are industrious, and they are not found supporting the men nor the system that have oppressed the tax payer and squandered the funds of the State.

THE COTTON CROP.

The low price of cotton is a most serious disaster to the cotton planters of this State. We deeply sympathize with them, although we have repeatedly warned them of the catastrophe which would follow, their persistence in relying entirely upon cotton, neglecting to cultivate every other article needed on their farms, and only making what cotton their own means enabled them to cultivate, instead of risking their success wholly upon a large yield of cotton, upon getting credit from the merchants for all their supplies.

But disasters seldom come single handed. We now learn from most of the cotton region of the State, that the crop is coming in very light, so much so as to warrant the belief, that not more than a half crop will be made in the State. If this should prove to be true of the whole South, which will soon be ascertained, it would be prudent for our planters in this State, not to sell their cotton at once. As matters now look, cotton, if forced upon the market, will go down to ten cents by the first of January. If the French and Prussian war would end soon, cotton would command better prices.

BAKER'S BRASS BAND.

This excellent band of musicians, of Petersburg, Va., discoursed most soul stirring music at the grand mass meeting at Rocky Mount last Thursday, and also gave the music for the ball on Thursday night. The leader told us that the ten members of the band had all voted the Conservative ticket in Petersburg, for State Senator, before they left to play for the Edgecombe mass meeting. Pity but all the Conservatives of Petersburg had been as zealous for the success of the Conservative candidate; the result of the special election would have been different if they had.

Gov. VANCE'S SPEECH.—We publish to-day, to the exclusion of other matter, the speech of Gov. Vance, at Augusta, Georgia, recently delivered and made impromptu in response to the greetings of the people and the Augusta Brass Band, which serenaded him. Every thing coming from Gov. Vance is read with avidity, and we therefore make no apology to our readers for the space it fills.

NEW PAPER IN WASHINGTON CITY.—We have received a prospectus of a new daily Democratic Conservative paper, to be published under the title of "THE PATRIOT," in Washington City, the first number to appear on the 14th of November next, James E. Harvey, editor, and O. K. Harris, news editor. It will be published by the "Patriot Newspaper Association," price for the Daily, $10 per year; Weekly, single subscription, $2.50; to clubs of ten or upwards, $2.

Address on business, James G. Berret, Patriot Office, Washington, D. C.

The Patriot will be just such a paper as the Conservatives and Democrats of the whole country, and every one who wishes to see the principles of the party, will need from the National Capital.

SPEECH OF EX-GOV. Z. B. VANCE, AT AUGUSTA, GA.

Delivered during his recent visit to Augusta, in response to the serenade of the Augusta Brass Band, and the calls of the large crowd that assembled at the Planters Hotel to greet him. We copy from the Chronicle and Sentinel:

Gentlemen:—I feel greatly obliged, and return my sincere thanks to you for the compliment which you have seen fit to pay me to-night. While it has been unexpected, I assure you that it is equally gratifying.—It is true it is all which a man in my condition can receive. For my past political sins, I am only allowed to have the good will and respect of the people, but surely that is enough. I am glad that even the fourteenth amendment can't deprive me of this. In introducing me to you to night, Captain King alluded to a political sin which I am charged with committing, when Governor of North Carolina, in not allowing Benning's Georgia brigade to hang Holden.

Well, gentlemen, in extenuation, I can only promise you this, that I'll never let such a sin be committed again. [Laughter.] Gentlemen, I thank you again for the honor you have done me to night, but hardly know what to say to you in return. Well, I can only state that I am an improvised messenger from the State of North Carolina to the State of Georgia. I tell you that North Carolina can no longer be called the Rip Van Winkle State—no, she is wide awake and full of fleas! [Laughter.] We were content to fight side by side with you during the war; but now we are ahead of you and you must hurry and catch up.—Gentlemen, I don't know a great deal about your affairs in Georgia, for I am a stranger, and I can't talk to you about them; but I do know something of North Carolina, and I will give you a little of her history, which you may find interesting and not without some value. After the war was over, and when the United States Congress passed its reconstruction acts for the avowed purpose of restoring the Southern States to their former places in the Union, and giving them peace and prosperity and all that sort of thing, the white people of North Carolina thought that they were not right and made war against them. When the election came on we went at the enemy's works in front—just as we had done before in the field, and failed—failed gloriously and honestly. And perhaps, this failure was the best thing for us. The people generally know better than the politicians what is right. If we had defeated the Constitution then, people might have said that it was a very good instrument, and that we had not given it a fair trial. As it was we were defeated. Thirty thousand white men stayed away from the polls in disgust, and the constitution was adopted. The men who were running the machine got into office and had their own way, and it was a way which led to bitter death. Yes, they had their way for two years, and they came at last to an end—to a most ignominious end. There never was such an end seen by the Lord on earth. Gentlemen, you can form no conception of the manner in which these men ran our State government.—Why, they issued $24,000,000 in bonds for the purpose of building railroads. But no railroads were ever built, and the bonds were given to their favorites for the support of their wickedness. These bonds were sold—at first for about 50 cents on the dollar, and finally for about 60 cents a basketful—the money spent in rascality, and then, when they became worthless, the Legislature turned round and repudiated them. They collected $300,000 by a special tax for a school fund, with which to establish schools for the education of the colored people. Then they repudiated this amount by special tax bonds and repudiated the bonds. Yet they established no school, and taught no colored people to read and write, but spent what remained unstolen of the $300,000 upon what they called militia—but who were nothing but vagabonds, and thieves from East Tennessee. During their two years term of office they destroyed the credit of the State, built no railroads, and established no schools, and then called out a standing army to suppress a rebellion which existed only in their fertile imaginations. And this standing army was the last feather which broke the camel's back. Notwithstanding their militia, which was employed in arresting peaceable citizens; notwithstanding the army of bailiffs which infested every town, they were subjected to an overwhelming defeat. The people, the great people, suffered much and suffered long, but finally the time came and they rose in all their might and majesty and whaled them out. There never was such a victory before, never such a sudden and complete change in the political complexion of a State. The only one of our nominees who ran on a general ticket was elected by 5,000 majority, and yet at the election before this the Radicals had 20,000 majority. They were beat, beat badly and beat to death. (Applause.) And they only needed a good defeat to make them perish; for they had been sick a long time and stank before they died. (Laughter.) Now the citizens hold the State again, and when the Legislature meets North Carolina will be fully restored to the Union and represented by men of intelligence and integrity. It is true that the State has no money—I am told there is not a dollar in the treasury—and as to credit, why the collective credit of the State on Wall street wouldn't buy a brandy smash, but then we've got the State. (Laughter.) Gentlemen, perhaps I can tell a little anecdote which will illustrate more fully what I mean. As a general thing I don't like anecdotes, but this one will convey my meaning more fully, and I'll tell it. Once there was a traveling preacher who went through the country exhorting, etc., and one Sunday he stopped at a country church to preach. When he had finished the sermon one of the deacons carried around the hat to take up a collection. He carried the hat to all the congregation and finally brought it back to the pulpit.—The preacher peeped over the edge of the pulpit and saw that there was not a red cent in it. He immediately said "let us pray," and, falling upon his knees, said: "Oh! Lord God, I thank Thee that this hat got back safe." [Laughter.] Now we got the hat back safe and that is a great deal. All that I can say to you in Georgia is "go thou and do likewise." I hope you will do it; you mustn't let North Carolina stay ahead of you. I have no doubt you have suffered over here, but not as much as we have. Yours, I know, is a great State, it is called the Empire State, but still I don't think that it lies in Georgia to furnish such thieves as we have in North Carolina.—[Laughter.] Why, gentlemen, their equals in the thieving business were never created. They could steal anything and everything. They could steal the nails from the hind shoes of a kicking mule. [Laughter.] But go ahead, gentlemen, as we did, and you'll win. Attack the works in front. Offer no compromise and accept none, but fight a square out fight, and you'll succeed. We would have no compromise in North Carolina. It is true they had one in Virginia, but I don't know how it will end. We fought on principle and conquered. You must elect in whom you have confidence, whether they are acceptable or not, for "freedom's battle once begun," etc. Have no doubtful guards on the walls—no men who give forth an uncertain sound—no men who "peradventure if it please God perhaps" will sound the trumpet when the enemy is coming. And let me advise you to do as we did in North Carolina in another respect—make no false promises to the colored people—no promises that you can't and won't fulfil. We told them that we had opposed their enfranchisement and the amendments to the Constitution which had conferred so much political power upon them; but we knew that it was useless now to offer further opposition. We acquiesced in what we could not prevent, and, if successful, would confirm to them all the rights which they then enjoyed.—This policy prevailed, and a large number of the colored people voted with us, and thousands more are only waiting to see if our actions will square with our words.—And they shall see. The first act of our new Legislature shall show them that the simple word of a Southern gentleman is worth more than all the oaths of a carpet-bagger or a scalawag. [Applause.] We will not wring three hundred thousand dollars from the people with which to form a school fund, and then spend it on a vile and contemptible militia, raised to oppress and persecute the people. We will act so as to make them sick of the Yankees, and show them that their old masters and themselves are natural allies. And the negroes are beginning to see this. They will not suffer themselves to be fooled again. As one of their class, and a very sensible man, said the other day, "When a darkey is deceived with his eyes shut he is a fool; but when he is deceived with his eyes open he is a damned fool." (Applause.) This, gentlemen is the good news I bring from North Carolina to Georgia, and I hope you are going to work to accomplish what we have accomplished. I am anxious to see Georgia stand side by side with my own State. But before I close, let me tell you another thing which we did in North Carolina. We won our victory by abstaining from acts of violence. Our enemies wanted us to rise. The militia was raised and put over us—citizens were arrested and hung until they were almost dead—the ancient modes of torture were employed to incite a fight. And suppose our brave soldiers had risen. They could have whipped the cowardly militia—that would have been easy enough. But what then? A rebellion would have been proclaimed; we would have been overrun with United States troops, and the State would have been ruined forever. We not only gained a victory over the enemy, but one, and a greater one, over ourselves, and saved the State, and, with the help of a few honest Judges, got some of the very men in jail who persecuted us, and they are to-night peeping from behind iron bars, and meditating over their rascality. You must fight like us. Stick to the law and win a great victory. I don't want you to say of us what was said of a North Carolina regiment during the war. The Georgia and Alabama and other State troops used to make a good deal of fun of the North Carolinians, and our boys liked to return the compliment when they could. One day I heard a North Carolina regiment taunting a Virginia regiment for failing to take a battery which the North Carolinians afterwards charged and captured. After standing it a little while one of the Virginians sung out, 'd—n you, you wouldn't have captured the battery either if you hadn't thought there was ammunition behind it." (Laughter.) There was no "ammunition" behind the battery which we took on the 4th of August. If you don't whip your fight, N. C. will lead you, and I don't want to see that. I think, however, that you will whip it. I read your papers and know how much aroused the people are and from your recent charter elections I know how enthusiastic are the people of Augusta. I believe, too, that the whole South will soon array herself on the side of law and order. We are not going to have any despotic governments in this country. The present chaotic condition of affairs will soon pass away and our civil liberties will be restored to us and made more precious than ever on account of the blood we have shed and the anguish we have endured in regaining them. You must fight bravely, go right at the works of the enemy, and if you fail it will be the first time Southern men ever failed. (Long Applause.)

Thanking you again, gentlemen, for the honor you have done me, I bid you good night.

For the Sentinel.

THE PEOPLE WANT A CONVENTION.

EDITOR SENTINEL:—Having passed through most of the counties in the western part of the State since the August election, I have no hesitancy in expressing the opinion that a majority of the people are in favor of a convention to change our present infamous Constitution. Not only is the Democratic Conservative party a unit on the question, but hundreds of moderate Republicans openly declare that a change is now an imperative necessity. Moreover, I am satisfied that many extreme Radicals, if they will not vote for, will certainly not vote against a change.

The truth is, native North Carolinians, irrespective of party, are heartily sick and tired of our carpet bag begotten Constitution, and long to get back to the old landmarks—the Constitution and laws of our fathers. I of course, mean the old Constitution, adapted to the changed condition of the negro race, with the Homestead provision of the present Constitution superadded.—We cannot if we would, (and we would not if we could) abridge any of the rights of the negro. He is amply protected by the Constitution and laws of the United States. He cannot, therefore, have any just apprehension that the Convention will injure him. As to the Homestead law, the people do not wish a change. I think therefore, it would be wise to retain it as it now is, without the least modification.—Let there be no issue on the Homestead question.

But will the Legislature call a Convention—can it? If a two-thirds majority can be had, I think it preferable for that body to call it; if not, let the question be submitted directly to the people, to say whether they will have a Convention. I take it that the latter mode is competent; as it seems to be well settled, that all power is inherent in the people. But I repeat, I think the former plan the better, for this reason. When the Constitution is adopted by the Convention and submitted to the people for their ratification, the latter will know what they are voting for, when they go to the polls. But if we have to submit the question of a Convention first to the people, we will necessarily stand on a platform of promises instead of one of deeds, as on the first plan. In other words, if the Legislature calls the Convention, the last named body will frame such a Constitution as will effectually disarm the Radicals of the only arguments they now offer against the calling of a Convention, namely, that the Democratic party intends to injure the negro and repeal the Homestead law.

But I will not prolong this communication, as I would like to be reckoned as "W." and "Bertie"—a "model" correspondent.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 4, 1870.

MR. THOS. N. RANDAL, as Business Clerk, is authorized to make contracts and give receipts, &c., &c.

OYSTERS at Pepper & O'Conner's—packed in ice—to night, and regularly henceforth.

COUNTY CONVENTION.

At a meeting of the Executive Democratic Conservative Committee of Wake County, held in this city this day, it was ordered, after a full and free consultation with our friends, that a County Convention be called to meet at the Court House in this city, of delegates from each Township, on Saturday, the 15th inst. for the purpose of nominating a candidate to fill the vacancy in the next House of Representatives, occasioned by the death of the late H. A. Hodge, deceased. The Committee respectfully advise the people of the several townships, to hold meetings in each on Thursday the 13th inst. to appoint delegates to attend said Convention, in order that there may be a full and fair expression of the wishes of the County.

GEO. H. SNOW, Ch'm.

Raleigh, Oct. 3rd, 1870.

MAYOR'S COURT, Oct. 3.—Jabel Gouch charged with riding his horse through the streets faster than the law allows. Being unable to pay the required fine was locked up for 24 hours.

Gabriel Collins (col.) charged with lying drunk on the street. Fined $2.

Chas. Stronach and John Russell, both colored men, charged with disorderly conduct on the streets. Fined $2

M. Check, drunk and disorderly on the streets was lodged in the Guard House for 24 hours not being able to pay his fine.—Check is a regular customer.

Stephen May, col., for hallooing in the streets, was given lodging in the Guard House for 24 hours.

Sallie Vandergrift, arrested for sleeping at the N. C. R. R. depot. Released.

NO JUDGE—NO COURT.—Yesterday was the day set apart by law for the opening of the Fall term of Wake Superior Court.—Jurors and witnesses who had been summoned to be present made their appearance at the Court House, but there was no Judge present and consequently, no Court. Not knowing why the Judge did not "put in an appearance," we shall indulge in no criticism on this particular failure; but this practice with some of the Judges of the State, has become so common that it amounts to a fault, and a very serious one at that. We suppose that on yesterday, at least five hundred farmers and laborers of Wake County, were fruitlessly drawn to the Court House, at this busy season of cotton picking and wheat sowing, and although this may be a matter of small moment to the Judge, it is a very serious matter to those whose time is thus needlessly lessly taxed. If the Courts are not to be opened on the day appointed by law, why not let the people be advertised of the fact, that they may be saved the needless expense and loss of time, in coming a day or two days before they are needed?

NEW ADS.—See what Creech says to his old friends and customers and the public generally. There is not a more reliable, upright, straight forward merchant in the State than Creech, and that is one of the great secrets of his grand success in merchandizing.

Stoves and Tin Ware, lamps and all goods belonging to that line of business, at the old stand, by George Lougee, Agent.

House for rent, lease or sale, W. H. Jones & Co.

JUDGE GILLIAM.—For some days we have been grieved to learn that Hon. R. B. Gilliam, of Oxford, the Representative elect to Congress from this District, is confined to a sick bed. We have no very late intelligence from him, but hope he is rapidly recovering.

DRUNK AND DISORDERLY.—The city clock got on a spree last Saturday night, and was knocking all sorts of hours and half hours all day Sunday, without regard to sun, moon or Church bells. We hope this is not ominous of a disorderly and profligate life, such as is so frequently led by individuals of that family, when they are set up as guides, and left without proper guardians for the regulation of their conduct.

MONSTER APPLES.—We, the Local, tender our thanks to Mr. R. P. Matheson, of Taylorsville, N. C., for a lot of very large apples—two kinds, but we don't know the names. They will not fall much, if any, below an average of 16 ounces. They are of excellent flavor.

While we are at it, we will proffer thanks also for the lot left for the editor, though it is somewhat problematical whether he ever gets his paws on them, as it is probable he will not return to the city, before the latter part of next week.

PUT ON AGAIN.—Bryan Lunn, col., having declined to serve on the Night Watch, Robt. Crossan, col., one of those recently thrown out by the Board of Commissioners, has been re-appointed by the Mayor.

THE BAPTIST STATE CONVENTION.—This body will meet in Raleigh, Nov. 9th. The committee on hospitality desire all who propose to attend the Convention to notify them at once, that all the arrangements for their entertainment may be made beforehand, and confusion and delay thus prevented.

We are further requested to say, that any of our citizens who may be willing to entertain delegates, during the Convention, will confer a favor by mentioning the matter to to the Pastor, or to P. F. Pescud, Chairman of the committee.

W. W. BODDIE, Conservative member of the last House of Representatives, from Nash County, died at his residence in that County on Monday night last. He was a good and useful citizen.

SYNOPSIS OF SUNDAY NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

The government will sell a million of gold every Wednesday and purchase two millions bonds every Thursday during October; will also anticipate the payment of the five per cent bonds due Jan. 1st, 1871, upon adjustment of interest at 6 per cent. These bonds were issued under act of June 22nd 1866, and amount to seven millions dollars.

The President has arrived in Washington. Rain continues and considerable damage has been done to the Winchester Road.

The Supreme Court of the District has abolished the rule requiring its lawyers to take the iron clad oath.

The Pope declines to quit Rome and will remain for the present at the castle of St. Angelo. His health is excellent. The civil affairs are conducted by a commission of eighteen ministers with Galtanie as President.

Political exiles are coming from all quarters.

A dispatch from Tours Saturday morning, says a fight was then progressing near St. Germain. A dispatch from Toul reports heavy firing in the direction of Metz.

It is reported that Gen. Bourbaki made a sortie from Metz, inflicting heavy loss on the Prussians. The National guards will protect Metz, if Bazaine succeeds in cutting his way out.

REX HOSPITAL FUND.

George Rex, of this city, many years ago, at his death, left in charge of Trustees a tract of land in the suburbs and a sum of money to be kept invested, until the sum accumulated sufficiently to erect a hospital on the land, for the benefit of the sick poor of Raleigh. Prior to the war, the fund had accumulated considerably. It suffered a good deal by the contingencies of the war. The Trustees, since the war, have erected a good house on the premises, and they are looking to the day when the wishes of Mr. Rex can be carried out.

The condition of the poor in this city demands some systematic effort for their relief, especially in sickness. We are opposed to adopting any plan by which poor people in the country who can possibly get along, shall be induced to come to the city, where their chances for support are much more precarious than in the country. Indeed, we honestly believe, it one-third of our population, were in the country working our cheap land, it would greatly tend to their benefit and that of the city.—But there are many poor who are here from necessity, who are entitled to the sympathy of the community, and who often need the advantages of a Hospital!

In this state of things, cannot the Trustees of the Rex Fund, with the co-operation of the city or of its citizens, at once make the attempt to carry out the benevolent wishes of Mr. Rex? A correspondent on yesterday, who feels and manifests much interest for the poor, made a suggestion to the Trustees of this Fund, and after some consideration, we second his suggestion.—The mortality the present season among the suffering poor admonishes our people, that something must be done for their relief.

"WILFUL, DELIBERATE MURDER."—Under this head the Standard of Saturday, arraigns, tries and convicts, E. A. Estes, of Oak Grove township, for the murder of Nelson Estes, on last Thursday. Considering that this murder is a subject of judicial inquiry, and that there were no witnesses to the act, the Standard has, we think, displayed an extraordinary acumen in making out so clear a case against Erastus Estes as it has. We shall not move for a new trial before the same tribunal, but will only mention a fact in palliation of the harsh character that seems to be attributed to him by the Standard. The incident is given us by one of his neighbors—a most reliable gentleman.

Last May, during the freshet in Neuse river, the cabin of a colored woman, in Estes' neighborhood, was surrounded by water, and the woman and her children were in imminent peril of being drowned. So manifestly dangerous was any effort to save them, that no one, white or colored, could be induced to undertake it, until Mr. Estes, at the risk of his own life, went to the rescue of the poor woman and her children, and brought them out safely from the flood.

We know nothing of the facts of the murder, nor are we disposed to bias public opinion one way or the other in advance of an investigation. We have heard Mr. Estes spoken of as a very reliable, orderly citizen.

DEATH'S DOINGS.—We are pained to learn, that Gen. J. R. STUBBS, of Martin, the efficient President of the Williamston and Tarboro' Railroad Company, died at his residence in Williamston, at 3 o'clock, P. M., on Friday last, the 30th ult. This sad intelligence will be read with sorrow by the numerous friends of Gen. S. Few men of his age have borne themselves with more dignity, honor and integrity, than Gen. S. He filled his public and private trusts with eminent fidelity. Such a death is a public loss, and it is felt the more keenly at a time like this, when such men are so much needed to sustain the honor dignity of the State. In his private relations he was universally esteemed. He died in the vigor of manhood and in the midst of usefulness, leaving a beloved wife and children, to whom his loss is irreparable.

HOOK AND LADDER COMPANY.—The regular monthly meeting of this Company will be held this Tuesday evening Oct. 4th at Fireman's Hall at 7½ o'clock.

The prompt attendance of every member is requested.

For the Sentinel.

Hon. Josiah Turner, Jr.:

DEAR SIR—In the SENTINEL of the 28th inst., we see the following: "We suppose we were wrong in stating that Mr. Bailey challenged Maj. Avery, but judge from the newspapers it must have been vice versa."—The undersigned does not wish to provoke discussion, but will simply state the facts; your first statement was correct. Mr. Bailey did challenge Maj. Avery.

Monday Evening Dispatches.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—Forty-seven lives were lost by the flood at Harper's Ferry. The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad is uninjured by the flood. The weather this morning is cold but cloudy.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—The World's special from Ostend, says that the victory of the 27th, reported to be claimed by Gambetta, is entirely discredited. Duke Mecklenkaled on the 24th, while riding with King William and staff from Rheims to Chalons, in the thickest part of the wood, suddenly there rang out a double volley of musketry from an ambuscade of franc-tireurs. The carriage containing the Duke and staff was riddled. A aid was killed and another mortally wounded. The Duke died on Sunday. The fifth carriage containing the King was struck by several balls but no one was hurt. The woods were scoured but nobody was found.

FOREIGN.

Diplomats at Paris will ask twenty-four hours notice before the bombardment commences, in order to leave the city. The government at St. Petersburg to quiet apprehensions announces semi-officially that the Turkish war will not involve the neutrality between Prussia and France. Russia newspapers are unanimous for a settlement of the Eastern question, and an abrogation of the treaty of Paris. Diplomats say that Gortschakoff is determined to upset the Paris treaty. Gortschakoff and Bismarck have probably solved this problem.

LONDON, Oct. 3.—The Prussians are slowly closing around Paris, but so far they have made no attempt to bombard the city. The Prussian garrison at Strasburg consists of ten thousand troops. Arrangements are progressing to bombard Paris from Villejuif, Gennerville and St. Cloud.

The Strasburg besieging army are divided; part goes to Lyons and part goes to Paris.

The correspondent of the London Evening Times believes that the reduction of Metz will require considerable time.

ROME, Oct. 3.—The voting was quiet. Out of 47,000 votes there were only 67 against Italian unity.

MARKETS.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—Flour steady; Wheat quiet and firm; Corn scarce and firm; Pork 24½; Lard quiet; Cotton quiet and firm, Uplands 10½, Orleans 10½, sales 500 bales; Spirits Turpentine quiet at 32½; Rosin in moderate request, unchanged.

Stocks heavy; Gold 12½; Money 4 to 5; Sterling, long 9½, short 10½; 62s 12.

LONDON, Oct. 3—Consols 92½; Bonds 90½.

LIVERPOOL, Oct. 3.—Cotton steady, Uplands 8 to 8½; Orleans 8; sales 10,000 bales.

Monday Night Dispatches.

WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—Revenue to-day nearly a million and a quarter. The five dollar fee for passports is abolished.

The condition of the telegraphs and Roads, prevent confirmation or details of the following:

"RICHMOND Oct. 2.—The Lexington Gazette painfully announces that Gent. R. E. Lee was stricken with paralysis on the 28th ult. since which time he has been altogether speechless.—The entire community are bowed with sorrow at this affliction to the old hero, which they regard as a mournful event to the State."

The weather is cold with occassional rain.

VIRGINIA.

RICHMOND, Oct 3.—The flood has gone down and the merchants are calculating their losses. It is thought this morning that half a million will cover the loss in the city, but not in the towns above here.

The Legislature will adjourn from day to day until a quorum can be obtained.

ATTON, near Greenwood, Oct. 3—Accounts coming in from this county, (Albemarle,) represent the destruction of property as immense and that many lives were lost.

The flood in some instances swept away entire families. The number of lives lost in Albemarle county, as far as heard from, amon 6,to 14.

The amount of destruction of grain, tobacco barns, fences, cattle, horses, houses and mills is incalculable.

The number of mills and dams destroyed within the range of the flood, were about fifty.

The freshet was confined within the radius of the upper valley of Virginia.

The flood was particularly severe along the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad. At Shadwell, about a mile of the track was washed away.—There are some three hundred miles between Cobham and Millboro, and eight or ten bridges have been swept away. The road is damaged to the extent of a hundred thousand dollars. At the Mountain Top House, on the summit of the Blue Ridge mountains, the kitchen was flooded with water.

FOREIGN.

FERRIERES, Oct. 3.—Bismarck has published that the report of a conversation between King William and the Emperor Napoleon, as given by Russell, the correspondent of the London Times, and extensively copied over the world, is founded throughout on mere invention.

BERLIN, Oct. 3.—The North German Gazette denounces the Priests as sources of anti-Prussian feeling in the south German States and as instigators of revolt, murder and hostile alliance.

The Prussians took five hundred prisoners in Saturday's action before Paris. General Burnside is in conference with Favre and Washburne at Paris.

Late advices report that Paris is orderly.

The requisition at Strasburg to quarter eight thousand troops, has been commuted for money.

ROME, Oct. 3.—Later returns show 40,000 votes for unity, and 500 against it. Several Monks and Priests voted "yes."

The city is illuminated. The best order prevailed. The services of the guards at the voting places were not needed. The workmen voted in a body.

LONDON, Oct. 3.—The Prussians demand 100,000 francs from each department from which Germans have been expelled. The Prefect of Lyons is invested with plenary power for the preservation of order. The populace support him enthusiastically.

Another body of Prussians crossed the Rhine, moving towards Malhouse; another body is near Neufchatean. A corps of 160,000 Germans are now forming at Toul to operate against Lyons.

Another account from Paris says that the French loss on September 30th, amounted to 1300 killed and wounded. Among the wounded was Genl. Guillaume. Three hundred Prussians were also taken.

The Prussians assert that the fire from the forts around Paris is vigorous but harmless. It is supposed that the object is to delude the Parisians into the belief that an effective defence is progressing.

TOURS Oct. 2.—Cremieux, in addressing Ulrich, said that the Government had decided that neither Strasburg or fortresses are to be ceded to Germany. The Petersburg Journal took favorable comment. The Prussians on the left bank of the Rhine are well disciplined and effective.

News from Tours and Metz confirms the reported excellent condition of Bazaine's army.

The Prefect of the Department du Nord, telegraphs the following account of the recent battle, dated at Lille, Oct. 2nd: "I have a dispatch from Paris by a carrier pigeon, dated Sept. 30th, saying that our troops to-day operated offensively. Ayres gallantly a force occupied Meaville and Thaye and advanced to Thiears and Clossey. all these positions were solidly occupied by entrenched Prussians, protected by cannon. After a short engagement, our troops retired in good order. The Mobiles behaved admirably. Our losses are considerable as were those of the enemy. The dispatch is signed by Trochu.

This French forts were almost silent Saturday and Sunday.

VIENNA, Oct. 3.—The Reviere of this morning says that the alarming news about Russian war preparations is untrue.

General Ignaliff is still at Constantinople.—Russia makes no war movement. The relations between Russia and Austria leave nothing to be desired.

NEUFCHATEAU, Oct. 3.—One thousand Prussian cavalry passed on a raid to-day to join the corps, forming at Toul. The German army which recently crossed the Rhine near Mulhouse, is marching on Schlestadt, and will occupy the entrance to the valley of St. Marie.

THE MOST VIGOROUS AND PROGRESSIVE COMPANY IN THE WORLD.

The Equitable

LIFE ASSURANCE SOCIETY

OF THE

UNITED STATES

120 BROADWAY, NEW YORK.

BURROUGHS & SPRINGS,

GENERAL AGENTS,

CHARLOTTE, N. C.

TWENTY-ONE REASONS FOR PREFERRING THIS COMPANY TO ALL OTHERS.

1. Its cash assets are upwards of $15,000,000.00 and constantly increasing.
2. None of this is made up of promissory notes as in many Companies.
3. Its cash income per annum is over $6,500,000.00 and steadily growing larger.
4. None of this is composed of the notes-of-hand of policy-holders, as the case in many companies.
5. It has paid to widows and orphans, and other claimants under policies on deceased members, about $4,000,000.
6. Such payments are made in cash, and not partly in cancelled notes, as is the case in many companies.
7. No deductions are made from the face of a policy for premium notes when it becomes a claim, as is the case in all Note Companies.
8. The sum of $2,500,000, and upwards, in cash divided among policy-holders (this included the dividend for the present year), as profits of the business.
9. All the profits of the business are annually divided among the assured Equitably, instead of being wholly or partially distributed among the stockholders, as is the case in all "Mixed" and "Proprietary" Companies.
10. Dividends are invariably available as cash in payment of premiums.
11. The dividends are made from the start and not postponed until after the lapse of several years, as in many Companies.
12. The Society deals Equitably with its policy-holders.
13. The Equitable has made more progress since its organization than any other Life Company in the world.
14. Its risks have been so carefully selected and its dealing so equitable, that it has never been obliged to contest the payment of a claim at law.
15. Its modes of applying dividends are more numerous and more advantageous than those of any other company in the world.
16. It issues all the popular styles of policy, including "Ten Year Non-Forfeiting" and "Endowment policies."
17. The amount of new business during the year ending "December, 1, 1869, was $37,021,214.00.
18. Its policies average larger in amount than those of any other company, showing that capitalists select the Equitable for purposes of investment.
19. The profits of the business are apportioned to the insured on the "Contribution Plan," which is conceded to be the only equitable mode of division, and one by the mode adopted by many companies, which is grossly unjust to a large proportion of the policy-holders.
20. It is as liberal in the conduct of the business as is consistent with safety to the assured, and does not sacrifice proper caution to an ambition to increase the nominal amount of its business as is the case with many new companies.
21. It is the favorite company in the United States, as is shown by its new business for last year, being nearly $13,000,000 greater than any other company.

SUCCEEDS HIS FATHER IN THE AGENCY OF THE NATIONAL LIFE INSURANCE CO., U. S. A.

For the Central and Northern Counties in NORTH CAROLINA.

The NATIONAL, under the management of his father, P. F. Pescud, Sr., secured very many warm friends who obtained policies for large amounts, and the fact that it has issued upwards of

10,000 POLICIES,

and nearly doubled its immense Capital of $1,000 000 in about two years, speaks more for its wonderful popularity than any language at my command. The rates being based on the Stock Plan, and when contrasted with Mutual Cash rates, are so much lower, that a certain and handsome dividend is secured from the date of the Policy.

I will be gratified to take applications from my friends and all wanting Policies, and shall want many active and reliable Agents, in the fields assigned me.

SEND YOUR ORDERS IN TIME,

FOR THE IMPROVED

"UTLEY COTTON PRESS."

THE "UTLEY PRESS" So well known, and which gave entire satisfaction last season, can be obtained of me at Raleigh, or my Agents, Messrs. Mitchell, Allen & Co., Newbern, with its improvements.

Price $175.00.

This invention of power, whereby all friction is overcome, its simplicity, economy and durability, astonishes all who see it; and the more so, that a power so simple should have remained so long unappropriated. The strain is wholly borne by the Bed Plate, Follower Block, and two 1¼ inch square iron bars, which is capable of sustaining a strain of 120,000 lbs. Thus giving much more strength than is required. WITH THIS PRESS TWO MEN CAN PACK A BALE OF COTTON WITH EASE IN EIGHT MINUTES WEIGHING FROM 450 to 550 lbs.

One man can do the work, only requiring longer time.

It occupies a very small space, and can be so placed as to receive the lint direct from the Gear Lint Room, as may be desired. Thus doing away with baskets, and frequent handling of the lint.

It is light in weight, can be taken down or put up in 30 minutes and transported on a two Horse Wagon.

I believe it unequalled by any Press for power, convenience and durability.

Press complete—Depth Cotton Box 8 feet. Size Bale 4½ feet 12x18x54 in.; wt. Bale 450 to 550 lbs.

THOS. H. BRIGGS.

T. H. BRIGGS, Esq.: Dear Sir:—I used the "Utley Cotton Press," I purchased from you last season, and consider it to be the best Press I ever saw. Having packed bales to weigh from five hundred and ninety (590) to six hundred and twelve pounds (612.) I consider it the best and most durable Press I ever saw used, and can cheerfully recommend its use to the farmers of North Carolina.

Yours truly, C. W. BYNUM.

MR. THOMAS H. BRIGGS: Dear Sir:—Yours of 13th instant inquiring as to the merits of the "Utley Cotton Press" is to hand, and in reply I would say that I have tried other Presses and consider the one upon which the Utley Press works cheaper, simpler and more durable than any I have met with.

Yours very respectfully,

THOS. H BRIGGS Esq., Raleigh, N. C.: SIR—I have used "Utley's Cotton Press" for baling hay for some months. It works well and gives entire satisfaction. I regard it as the best Hay Press I have seen.

RALEIGH, N. C., June 18th, 1870.

T. H. BRIGGS, Esq., Raleigh, N. C.: Dear Sir:—I used the "Utley Cotton Press" I purchased from you last season. I packed my own crop of cotton, also other crops for my neighbors, making in all one hundred bales. I consider it superior in all respects to any Press I have ever seen and that it is every thing the patentee represents. I packed bales weighing from four hundred to five hundred and ninety-seven pounds.

Yours truly, W. T. HOWLE.

BENEFIT LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY
OF NEW YORK.

Cash Assets over $1,500,000,

ISSUES ALL FORMS OF NON FORFEITABLE WHOLE LIFE AND ENDOWMENT POLICIES on the Mutual Cash Plan, declaring Dividends annually after the first annual premium paid. Assets exclusively Cash with no portion of its reserve fund in premium notes, consequently its "reserve" is stronger than that of any Company doing business in this State. No "Definite surrender values guaranteed" as an inducement to new business but reference is made to the average amount, paid on each surrendered policy as shown by New York Insurance Reports, 1869 in evidence of having paid larger surrender values, than has been given under a minimum "Definite Cash Surrender Value." Death losses have not required, out of several hundred policy-holders in this State, which fact must establish the better ability of this Company, to pay larger dividends than Companies having an excessive mortality, the result of a selection of bad risks. "Fictitious Dividends are not declared, but Dividends are given from the actual surplus in accordance with the Company's Charter. The attention of the public is invited to the following comparison of cost, demonstrating the advantages over ordinary insurances, of the

BROOKLYN LIFE

Christian W. Bouck PRESIDENT. | Wm. H. Cole, Secretary.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE, AS WELL AS AT DEATH!!

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, IS THE ONLY COMPANY IN AMERICA WHICH GUARANTEES

DEFINITE CASH SURRENDER VALUES,

IN CASE A POLICY IS FORFEITED FOR NON-PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.

The BROOKLYN LIFE enjoys the highest reputation for judgment of investment, economy of management, and skill and care in the selection of risks,—upon which elements of administration the security of a Life Insurance Corporation depends.

The laws of New York compel Companies in that State to calculate the Cash value of their Policies, each and every year, and a certain legal standard of reserve and accumulation must be held by the Companies to meet all their liabilities.

Insurers in looking around for Companies in which to insure, should carefully seek for this important safeguard. It will be found in the BROOKLYN LIFE.
